In the forenoon Sugar went up three points in Wall street. In the afternoor Trust schedule passed the Senate. Mr. Gray's Committee will, perhaps, nothe coincidence.

It still remains a secret, if the friends of home rule in New York have been doing anything to convince the Constitutional Convention that home rule is so vital a necessity here.

Somebody nominates Croker for a Police Justice. He would hardly do. Justice, you know, is blind, and the late chief of Tammany has demonstrated his ability to see a long way ahead.

Philadelphia has got to spend $40,000 to brace up the central tower of its new $17,000,000 City Hall. New York has no such worry on hand, and doesn't seem

AN ANARCHIST'S BOMB.

A pupil in one of the public schools in Brooklyn has recently displayed Anarchistic tendencies. He has defied the constituted authorities and showed a sovereign contempt for law and order. Yesterday during school hours he made an effort to raise a rebellion in the school, and springing suddenly to his feet uttered a wild, demoniacal, blood-curding yell that Herr Most might have envied and Buffalo Bill might have admired. Thereupon the Principal of the school seized the offender and began to belabor him with a stout cane.

Treatment of Patent Leather. Sweet oil is the best for patent leather, and it should be applied sparingly. All of the surplus should be carefully and thoroughly wiped off, and the shoe is then to be polished with a piece of chamois. After the glaze of patent leather begins to crack and will no longer take the fine polish without which patent leather is a burden to the eye, there is no resource so effectual as varnish, but when once the application of varnish has been begun it must be continued to the end. Varnish must be applied to patent leather with the tips of the fingers; nothing else will answer so well. Be sure that the shoe is perfectly free from dust or dirt of any kind.

Stuffed Turnips. Peel and boil in slightly salted water until half done. Take them out, slice off a bit from the bottom to make them stand firmly. Cut a slice from the top. Scoop out the middle and fill with a stuffing of minced meat (veal if possible), onion and parsley, and muchrooms if they can be had. Tie the slice on the top. Place the turnips in a saucepan, pour over them some bolling gravy or stock, add a bit of butter, se with salt and pepper. Simmer gently until tender. Arrange in a deep dish: thicken the sauce with the yolk of an

In the Kitchen. Use good soap in the kitchen, as it saves the hands. Rub the teakettle with kerosene and polish with a fine dry flannel cloth. Cold sliced potatoes fry and taste better by sprinkling a teaspoonful of flour over them while frying. A box of powdered borny should always be kept on the sink shelf. A little added to the water in which dish towels are washed will help much to keep them clean, and at the same time keep one's
